

Traditional Cypriot Feast & Festivities @ Ta Fanaria tis Maroullous Tuesday 4/11/2025

A family-owned Traditional Cypriot Restaurant opened in 1973 by Maroulou and Savvakis, a couple from Palaichori village, which is still today managed by the second-generation family members. The restaurant is 30 minutes' drive on the outskirts of Nicosia City on the mountainous road to Palaichori Village, built on beautiful grounds with lavish greenery and pine trees.

You will have the opportunity to taste a delicious "Feast of Traditional Cypriot Food," enjoy local Cypriot wines, Zivania and local sweets locomades (honey balls). A night of Cypriot Traditional Dancing performance by Vourka Dancing Group, haloumi making, and many many more Cypriot Festivities, not to be missed.
